Thereafter, after the commencement of the liquidation process, the Liquidator filed an application in June, 2022 before the Hon'ble NCLT, Hyderabad bench seeking joint sale of materials by the Liquidator and Customs

Department which was later modified to exclusive sale by the Liquidator in view of the Judgement of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in the ABG Shipyards case. No consent or participation is required from the Customs Authority in this matter.

The Customs Department vide its letter dated 20.12.2023 released the goods lying in their warehouse and handed over the possession to the liquidator on 29.12.2023. However, their letter dated 28.12.2023 stated the following:-

Thereafter, the Customs Department vide its e-mail dated 06.02.2024 again informed that proper procedure as prescribed under Section 46 and Section 68 of the Customs Act, 1962 should be followed for clearance of goods lying in the Customs Bonded Warehouse. We had replied vide our e-mail dated 17.02.2024 that in our view, we are in compliance with Section 46 and Section 68 of the Customs Act, 1962. A copy of our reply is attached as per “Annexure-A”. Despite that, the Department has, vide its email dated 08.03.2024 re-iterated as under:-

“With reference to the trail mail, it is to inform that contact details of the winning bidder may please be shared to this office as and when the auction takes place and the said party should be informed that while clearing goods from the warehouse, proper Ex-bond (removing goods from the warehouse) Bills of Entry should be filed as prescribed under Section 47 and Section 68 of the Customs Act, 1962 with permission from the Commissioner of Customs, Nagpur for clearance of goods from the warehouse.”

As Hon'ble NCLT has very clearly stated in its Order that the material can be sold without the intervention of the Custom Authorities and for reasons mentioned in our above reply, we have already complied with the Sections under reference. However, the buyer is advised to do his own due diligence before bidding and it will be his responsibility to complete Custom Rules related formalities, if any, at his own cost. 8. With respect to Lot No. 12 i.e., Boiler and Coal Mills Material, this is to inform that the said material was lying in the Custom warehouse and was under the control and custody of Customs Department since 2012 as the corporate debtor could not furnish the required Bank Guarantees in lieu of the Customs Duty. Thereafter, after the commencement of the liquidation process, the Liquidator filed an application in June, 2022 before the Hon'ble NCLT, Hyderabad bench seeking joint sale of materials by the Liquidator and Customs Department which was later modified to exclusive sale by the Liquidator in view of the Judgement of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in the ABG Shipyards case. The Hon'ble NCLT, Hyderabad Bench vide its order dated 15.06.2023 allowed the application by giving liberty to the liquidator to proceed with the sale of the said materials without intervention of the customs department. No consent or participation is required from the Customs Authority in this matter.

The Customs Department vide its letter dated 20.12.2023 released the goods lying in their warehouse and handed over the possession to the liquidator on 29.12.2023. However, their letter dated 28.12.2023 stated the following:-

"Please refer to this office letter F.No. VIII(39)56/Lanco/CDN-I/2020 dated 20.12.2023 on the above subject.

In continuation to the above referenced letter, it is requested that for clearance of goods lying in the Customs Bonded Warehouse proper Bills of Entry should be filed according to Section 46 of the Customs Act, 1962 and the proper procedure as prescribed under Section 68 of the Customs Act, 1962 should also be followed."

Thereafter, the Customs Department vide its e-mail dated 06.02.2024 again informed that proper procedure as prescribed under Section 46 and Section 68 of the Customs Act, 1962 should be followed for clearance of goods lying in the Customs Bonded Warehouse. We had replied vide our e-mail dated 17.02.2024 that in our view, we are in compliance with Section 46 and Section 68 of the Customs Act, 1962. A copy of our reply is attached as per “Annexure-A”. Despite that, the Department has, vide its email dated 08.03.2024 re-iterated as under:-

“With reference to the trail mail, it is to inform that contact details of the winning bidder may please be shared to this office as and when the auction takes place and the said party should be informed that while clearing goods from the warehouse, proper Ex-bond (removing goods from the warehouse) Bills of Entry should be filed as prescribed under Section 47 and Section 68 of the Customs Act, 1962 with permission from the Commissioner of Customs, Nagpur for clearance of goods from the warehouse.”

As Hon’ble NCLT has very clearly stated in its Order that the material can be sold without the intervention of the Custom Authorities and for reasons mentioned in our above reply, we have already complied with the Sections under reference. However, the buyer is advised to do his own due diligence before bidding and it will be his responsibility to complete Custom Rules related formalities, if any, at his own cost. The Liquidator shall not be held liable for anything. All the relevant documents/ correspondences in this regard will be shared through a Virtual Data Room (VDR)/ Link to be provided along with this E-Auction Process Information Document. It will be assumed that the buyer has studied the same before bidding.
